NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Belle Haven.

Miss Margaret West left last week to accept position of teacher in Princess Anne Co., Va.

Mr. J. Wise Smith, now a graduate of pharmacy, has just returned to his home from Richmond.

Our school has opened up under favorable conditions under Professor Emmott's management.

Mr. Fred Mapp has retired from the blacksmith business and connected himself with the Kestler Lumber Co.

Mr. J. W. Wyatt has been busy for several days adding to the size of his storehouse, increase in trade demanding it.

Mr. O. W. Lewis, our enterprising barber, has repainted and papered his shop and the same is a credit to the town.

Many citizens of the town attended the battleship launching at Newport News and the State Fair at Richmond this week.

The Belle Haven Bank has opened for business in the Town Council's office until the new banking house is completed.

Our oldest citizen, Mr. Jno. R.
Floyd, will leave the town at the end of the year and make Willis Wharf his future home.

Several new buildings are at a standstill in the town for the want of carpenters. Fifteen or twenty could get employment here now.

Capt. I. Luke Mapp is again on our streets after having been confined to his home for several months with a severe case of typhoid fever.

Miss Laura Hopkins, of Pungo-teague, has accepted a position with the Diamond State Telephone Co., at their central office in our town.

Mr. Wellington West has resigned his position in the Baltimore Bargain House to accept assistant cashier's place in the new Belle Haven bank.

Belle Haven presents to the voters of Pungoteague Magisterial District for re-election as Supervisor thereof, the present incumbent. Examine his record for the two terms in office.

Chase's cannery factory here is doing an immense business now canning sweet potatoes. Our farmers get nearly as much for their culls as they realize for the Red Star brand.

Mr. Geo. E. Winder, agent, has just received from the old reliable house of Wannamaker & Brown a full line of fall and winter samples for made-to-measure clothing. Call and see them.

J. F. Mears & Co., enterprising merchants of our town, are making extensive improvements. An up-to-date dwelling is being built by them and their storehouse is being enlarged to meet the demands of their trade.

The architect and builder of Mr. L.
J. Kellam's new house is Mr. Thomas Stringer, a resident of our town. Anyone examining the same will be convinced that it is unnecessary to leave the county to seek talent, if an up-to-date, expensive house is desired.

Onanock.

The Accomac News was transferred to Mr. L. D. T. Quinby, Monday.

Mr. Wm. T. Bundick left Monday for a lecturing tour in West Virginia.

Va., will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist Church next Sunday morning and night.

Capt. John F. Wild, who resided here several years ago as assistant inspector of Life Saving stations, was in town Tuesday.

Advices from Dr. Edward B. Finney state that he is slowly gaining strength and may be expected to return home in about two weeks.

The fall opening of our several millinery establishments attracted large crowds of ladies, and our streets have presented a very animated appearance since Monday.

Mr. Geo. U. Powell and bride arrived Thursday. They will be at Mount Prospect until November 1st, and after that date at Mr. Powell's handsome home, "The Poplars".

Dr. Robert P. Fletcher, U. S. Pension examiner, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting his aunts, the Misses Pouson. Miss Bettie Poulson, who has been quite ill, is thought to be improving.

The Schooner Bertie Bennett loaded sweet potatoes Wednesday for one of the canneries at White Haven, Md.
It is thought by many that this business, where the potatoes are grown, promises a much safer and better return than a number of the recent enterprises.

The wather reminds you that you will need a nobby cloak or stylish tailor-made suit. We are ready to serve you. Also the greatest line of skirts that we have ever shown.

eral of her friends at her home Saturday evening. All present report a very pleasant time.

Mr. T. G. Elliott, who has for several years been engaged in the mercantile business here, is offering his entire stock at cost for cash and his storehouse for rent. Mr. Elliott has probably been in business as long if not longer than any man on the Peninsula and has been very successful. We understand he will retire.

Mrs. Annie Turner, widow of the late Jas. E. Turner, and mother of Mr. Joshua H. Turner, of this town, died Sunday morning last after a short illness, aged 74 years. Funeral services was conducted over the remains at Garrison's M. E. Church, South, of which she was a consistent member by Rev. J. H. Nicholson, the pastor, assisted by Rev. R. O. Payne, of Pungoteague. The interment was made in the old family burying ground.
She is survived by two sons, Joshua H. Turner and Wm. Turner and several grand-children and great-grandchildren.

Temperance Pills.

Our market fully supplied with fresh fish and beef.

summer in our village, left for Baltimore on Monday, but was delayed at Onanock by failure of steamer to put in appearance.

Mrs. J. R. White, of Keller, spent several days in town last week. Mrs.
White was the popular principal of our public school last session. But then she was Miss Fairy Mapp.

Our public school this year promises to do much good. Mr. Wade the principal is thoroughly qualified. He is an A. B. from one of the best colleges in the state—Richmond College.
He is firm and gentle, but best of all he is a Christian and realizes the value of moral training. Miss Oldham and Miss Parks are the assistants and very popular.

Ex Confederate Soldiers Take Notice.

The Grand Camp Confederate Veterans, Department of Virginia, will meet in reunion at Roanoke City, Va., October 24th, 25th and 26th, 1906.
The Harman-West Camp, C. V., Department of Va., No. 125, U. C. V., No. 651, is entitled to delegates and alternates at the meeting, their per capita of $2.70 having been paid to Quarter Master D. A. Brown. Who should not the old Ex-Confederates of the Eastern Shore be there? It should not be a desire for a social gathering but to pay a tribute of love to the memory of the most remarkable body of men ever engaged in war's bloody strife; whose deeds, the most markable chapter in all human history, gained for them the respect of their enemies and the admiration of the rest of the civilized people of the world; whose setting sun, going down behind the clouds of defeat, left an eternal stream of military glory along the path of martial fame and throw the light of pride of a nation upon the tomb of the dead Confederacy.

"It matters not where their bodies lie, By bloody hillsides, plain or river;
Their names are writ on fame's proud sky,
Their deeds of valor live forever."

Adjutant,
of H. W. C. C. V., No. 125, Hallwood, October 9, 1906.

Millinery.

Misses M. H. and L. E. Doughty are now home with a full line of up-to-date fall and winter millinery and extend to our friends and patrons a cordial welcome to come and inspect our goods.

Mr. James E. Holland, assistant postmaster, has resigned the position and will engage in the mercantile business, having bought out Mr. Brasure on Grand St. He was a polite and efficient assistant postmaster and will be much missed by the patrons of our office.

Mr. John Thomas Cherricks, a highly esteemed citizen died on the 7th inst., after a long illness, aged 65 years. He had been a staunch member of the M. P. Church for years and was a worthy brother of the Heptasoph, Royal Arcanum and United Americans and was insured in the first two for $7,000. He leaves a widow, 5 sons—Lewis, Albert, Charles, William and Thomas Cherricks and two daughters—Mrs. Charles Jefferies and Mrs. Wm. Watson.

Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week:

Onley.

Mrs. A. J. McMath, Mrs. George Rew and Mrs. Guy spent the week in Baltimore.

Mr. Levi Core, who has been in declining health for some time, was taken by Dr. Angle to Virginia Hospital this week. While away Dr.
Angle will attend a meeting of the Medical Society of Charlottesville, returning home to day.

Mrs. L. J. Savage and daughter, Sara Hoge Savage, Mrs. Sue C. James and Miss Minnie Mills have returned home from a delightful "House Party" given at "Evergreen Home" in London Co., the home of our State W.
C. T. U. President. From there they attended the annual W. C. T. U.
State Convention held in Alexandria, and report a large, interesting and enthusiastic meeting—progress and good reports from all over the State.

The home of Miss Cordie L. Savage was the scene of a pretty birthday party given in her honor on the evening of the 4th inst. Those in attendance were Misses Helen Burton, Lizzie and Viola Rogers, Julia Hebard, sie Watson, Sudie and Lelia Haley; Charlie Walker, Fred Johnson, W. C.

Parsons, Vernon Burton, Charlie Danton, Roy Broughton, Lloyd Taylor, Will Jacob, E. Scott, C. R. and Norman Savage.

The Onley W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. L. J. Savage on Tuesday afternoon. After the regular business Mrs. Bettie Davis, who was sent by this Union as a delegate to the State Annual Convention held in Alexandria, September 24th to 27th, gave a very pleasing and encouraging report which was so much enjoyed by all present, that they felt no mistake was made in sending Mrs. Davis as their representative. After such a glorious mind feast delicious refreshments were served.

Church Entertainments.
